

Childminder's Network

The childminder's Network is a play and stay session especially for childminder's who provide care for children aged 0—4 years.

The session provides quality play experiences for children and support from qualified staff. It's a friendly place to meet other childminder's, share good practice and ideas.

The group runs on Tuesday 9.30—11.00am. The cost is £1 per childminder with a drink and healthy snack included.

For more information please contact the centre.
